The changing landscape for innovation and creativity we do not see life as it is... we see life as we are the design of Business; Roger Martin why value creation through collaboration?

from oil refineries to bio-refineries Different skills

from competitive to collaborative deep expertise/mastery ability to connect across multiple stakeholders in business and society ability to deal with uncertainty and complexity; to improvise, course correct, change a new humility...

congeading that people at the receiving end of traditional processes may have better ideas than the experts who have been designing those processes for many years...
